The Cloverleaf's History

The Cloverleaf is a long-standing monument in Tacoma. The building located at 6430 6th Ave. was originally a warehouse. Pat Nolde and Mike Ball started the Cloverleaf Tavern in 1950. Jack Collimum and Al Moody were owners between then and October 1960 when Larry Turco purchased the business. In 1961, Larry brought in the pizza recipe from a business interest he had in Ponders. Larry did well at the Cloverleaf Tavern, but decided to sell to Lennard Manke on January 1, 1971. Lennard continued a thriving business until his retirement. He sold the business to his son and daughter-in-law, Kris and Debbie Manke on January 1, 2004.

At one time, Cloverleaf Pizza was distributed from the Cloverleaf Tavern in Bremerton, the Hy-lu-hee-hee in Gig Harbor, the Strap in Spanaway, the Little Leaf in Lakewood, and Lennard K's Bar and Grill in Allyn. Lennard sold his interests in all these businesses, along with the recipe. Some still claim the famous pizza as part of their menu.

Our pizza earns its fame from its unique thin crust. The pies are hand squashed daily and dressed with a flavorful red sauce. Pizzas are generously topped with an array of meats and veggies of your choice, which are not pre-cooked. You can build your own or trust us with one of our famous specialty pizzas. Actual cooking time ranges from 25 to 45 minutes depending on the size of the pizza and the number of toppings. It is definitely worth the wait.

Cloverleaf Pizza is the perfect dish for that special occasion. You can always count on a memorable event when Cloverleaf Pizza is at the center of the table.

ALL GOOD THINGS TAKE TIME. CLOVERLEAF PIZZA TAKES TIME, IT CAN'T BE RUSHED.

IF YOU ARE IN A HURRY, PLEASE CALL AHEAD AND WE CAN HAVE IT READY FOR YOU.
